SURTEES

The ultimate insider's experience of Festival of Speed, Surtees combines unparalleled views of the action, exceptional cuisine prepared for you by Michelin-starred chef Ollie Dabbous, personalised concierge service and access to 'Only at Goodwood' moments with the unique, adrenaline-fuelled atmosphere of the event.

This unmatched Festival of Speed experience is named in honour of the incomparable John Surtees. John was already a seven-time world champion on motorcycles, and winner of six Isle of Man TTs, when, in 1960, he switched to cars. Four years later, he won the Formula 1 World Championship, becoming the first, and still the only, person to win world championships on both two and four wheels. A lifelong friend of Goodwood, he became a patron of Festival of Speed in 1993.

CLARK

Perfectly positioned for spectacular trackside views of one of the most challenging points on the hill, Clark is ideal for sharing a day of incredible motorsport and excellent hospitality with your guests. You will share a memorable Festival Speed experience with your guests as you take in views of Molecomb Corner. Renowned for its enviable proximity to the Formula 1 paddock and the dramatic views of the action from its impressive position, the Clark's open style welcomes guests to enjoy superb service and delicious food.

Namesake Jim Clark was a commanding presence on the track – widely accepted as the best driver in the world from the retirement of Stirling Moss in 1962 until his untimely death in 1968. As well as two Formula 1 World Championships, he won the 1965 Indianapolis 500, and competed with great success in sports cars, saloons and even rally cars, as well as single-seaters. He was a regular at Goodwood, winning the last two Formula 1 races at the circuit in 1964 and '65, and sharing the historic lap record of 1m20.4s with fellow Scot Sir Jackie Stewart.

MOSS PAVILIONS

Home to effortless entertaining at the festival, our private trackside Moss Pavilions are perfect for sharing a memorable Festival of Speed experience with your guests. Located close to the popular Supercar Paddock and all the incredible motorsport action on the hill, Moss Pavilions enjoy superb views of the start straight from their impressive position. With excellent service and delicious food, you are ensured an unforgettable day at the festival.

Moss Pavilions have been named in honour of 'Mr Goodwood' himself, the legendary Sir Stirling Moss. Stirling took part in his first race at Goodwood's first meeting, a day after his 19th birthday, in 1948. He won here more than any other driver, including four consecutive Tourist Trophies from 1958-61, and sadly suffered career-ending injuries in his last race here, on Easter Monday 1962. In retirement, he continued his close ties, becoming a patron of the Festival of Speed in 1993.
