Sample Itinerary

Day 1 On arrival in Seville, you will be met at the airport by your chauffeur to transfer you to your luxury accommodation. Hotel Alfonso XIII is the best-known hotel in Seville, and certainly one of its finest. Set in the very heart of Seville, known for its unique beauty and culture, your hotel is luxuriously grand with a selection of rooms and suites, exquisite restaurants and an outdoor swimming pool. It is the perfect place to rest your head for a couple of nights in this bustling city. Once settled in, spend your first evening with a local knowledgeable guide visiting the freshest, and most exciting tapas bars in the city. From fresh prawns to line-caught baby squid to perfectly charred steak, the pintxo tasting tour the tour changes every day and will ensure you a fantastic evening.

Day 2 Today enjoy a wonderful private chauffeured sherry wine experience, discovering one of the world's most beautiful undercover wine regions. During the day you will visit to a bodega and walk amongst the stunning vineyards, each with their own style, history and architecture. Take some time to stroll in the famous village of Jerez before sampling local delicacies in a local restaurant for lunch. This afternoon step into a sherry vineyard, see the botas and sherry barrels that are essential in the unique process of sherry making, this will be followed by a sherry pairing with some of the most authentic local products.

Day 3 Your final morning is yours to explore Seville's beautiful and historic city centre before saying goodbye to this wonderful city! Why not try El Rinconcillo Bar which dates from 1670 and is said to be the oldest tapas bar in Seville. Or perhaps visit the world's largest Gothic cathedral, Seville's fortified royal palace, the Alcazar and the elegant architecture and patio at the Casa de Pilatos, the finest example of a Mudejar townhouse. Relax with private transfers to the airport.
