EVENT & SPEAKERS

After a fantastic tournament for the PDC World Championship over Christmas, which saw 17-year-old superstar Luke Littler win his first world title, the focus of darts fans moves to the BetMGM Premier League, featuring eight of the world's best including "Luke The Nuke", "Cool Hand Luke" Humphries, "MVG" Michael Van Gerwen and Gerwyn "The Iceman" Price. We are thrilled to announce a top-class package for the Premier League Darts Final at the O2, featuring the top four players from the qualifying competition, with hospitality taking place in the Riverview Suite at the 5* Intercontinental O2 adjoining the Arena.

Our package includes a delicious three course dinner, complimentary bar of house beers, wines and soft drinks, photo opportunities and a Q & A session with darts legend and two-time PDC world champion, Adrian Lewis, and great seats for the night's action in the Arena. All guests brave enough will have the opportunity to play a "9 Dart Challenge" against Adrian Lewis on our stage, hosted by a professional darts compere, with walk-on music and prizes for the best competitors!

2025 BetMGM Premier League Darts: Play Offs and Final Night

The eight competitors battling it out to be crowned Premier League Darts champion 2025 have now been confirmed! Last year's tournament was memorably won by Luke "The Nuke" Littler, landing his first major title by defeating the man who beat him in last year's PDC World Championship, "Cool Hand Luke" Humphries 11-7 in the Final, which astonishingly saw Littler hit a 9-dart finish amidst epic scenes. The two Lukes are joined in the eight-person line-up this year by Michael Van Gerwen, Gerwyn "The Iceman" Price, Rob Cross, Chris "Hollywood" Dobey, Nathan Aspinall, and the ever-popular Stephen Bunting. After a gruelling 16 date tournament across the UK, Ireland and the Netherlands, the leading four competitors will meet for the ultimate showdown at the O2 for the Premier League darts crown!

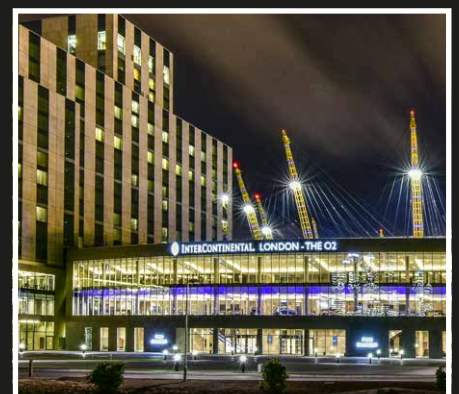

Special Guest: Adrian Lewis

A two-time PDC world champion, Adrian Lewis is widely regarded as one of the most naturally gifted players in the history of the sport. Known by his nickname "Jackpot," Adrian burst onto the scene as a protégé of the legendary Phil Taylor, training alongside the 16-time World Champion in his early career. After turning pro in 2004, his global breakthrough came in 2011 when he won his first PDC World Darts Championship, defeating Gary Anderson in the final. During the match he also became the first player to hit a nine-dart finish in a World Championship final, an astonishing feat matched by Luke "The Nuke" Littler in January 2025. Adrian successfully defended his title in 2012, cementing his place amongst the darts' elite in the modern game. With his fast-paced style and electrifying scoring ability, "Jackpot" has claimed numerous other titles, including multiple World Cup of Darts trophies representing England alongside Phil Taylor. Known for his charisma and fiery competitive nature, he has been a fan favourite for years.

InterContinental London – The O2

The 5* Intercontinental O2 enjoys spectacular views over Canary Wharf, and the River Thames, perfectly located for discerning clients attending the O2 Arena. Connected directly to the O2 Arena via a covered walkway, with a dedicated entrance to the Arena, the Intercontinental is also just 5 minutes' walk from North Greenwich tube station. For guests staying overnight, the contemporary rooms feature chic, granite bathrooms, offering free Wi-Fi, smart TVs and desks. Our hospitality takes place in one of the Hotel's finest and most salubrious suites, The Riverview Suite, and guests will enjoy quality dining and service for which the hotel is rightly renowned.
